Print Suppliers Group Elects New President and Board Members

Las Vegas, Nevada, March 12, 2011 -- At its annual meeting, the Print Suppliers Group (PSG) elected Keith Voigt, President. Exiting PSG President, John Toigo, said that, “Over the last two years, the PSG group has continued to expand our membership, purchases, and savings for our members. After increasing our purchases from our strategic partners by over 20% in a 2010, we are excited to reach new sales records in 2011. I am confident Keith will continue to lead the PSG to the next level. Simply put, the PSG is such a great example of a win-win for the members, their customers, and our supply partners.”

Prior to becoming President, Keith served as Vice President for PSG’s Executive Board since 2006. Keith is based out of Portland, Oregon and is President and Owner of Great Western Ink. “I am excited to be elected to President. It is always a great honor to be elected by your peers. John is a class act to follow and has laid the ground work for our continued growth”, said Keith Voigt.

Other board elections were:

- Vice President/Secretary - Dennis Brunner, Brunner Consultants in Miami, FL
- Treasurer - Fiona Cummings, Farbotech Color in La Verne, CA.
- Board Members at Large – Doug Stanley, American Printing Ink, Marlon Tusche, Pertech Corp, Elizabeth, NJ, Craig Brunk, Strategic Ink Solutions, Arlington Height, IL; John Toigo, Grand Rapids Printing Ink, Grand Rapids, MI
